

Enc.

Treasury Department,

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY,

Washington, D. C., November 12, 1887.

Mr. Daniel M. Fox,
 Custodian, U. S. Mint,
 Philadelphia, Penna.

Sir:

I have to inform you that the proposal of Farrel and Company, in amount Two hundred and fifty dollars ($250.00) for furnishing and setting up complete, in accordance with their specification - a vault door in the building in your custody, has this day been accepted.

Upon completion of the work to your satisfaction, submit vouchers in duplicate for the expense, made payable from the appropriation for Vaults Safes and Locks.

Locks for Public Buildings, 1888.

Copy of the specification and proposal herewith enclosed.

Respectfully yours,

Asst. Secy.

Assistant Secretary.

Enclosed

1555

RG104 E-1 Box 149

Treasy Dept
Office of Secretary
Nov 12 1887.

J. H. Maynard.

Asst Secretary.

Proposals of Farrel & Co
$2500, for furnishing
& setting up a vault
door, has been accepted.

[Abstract:] Proposals of Farrel & Co. $2500, for furnishing & setting up a vault door, has been accepted.

One

Treasury Department,
Office of the Secretary,
Washington, D.C.,
November 12, 1887

Mr. Daniel M. Fox,
Custodian, U.S. Mint,
Philadelphia, Penna.

Sir:

I have to inform you that the proposal of Farrel and Company, in amount Two Hundred and fifty dollars ($250.00) for furnishing and setting up complete, in accordance with their specification – a vault door in the building in your custody, has this day been accepted.

Upon completion of the work to your satisfaction, submit vouchers in duplicate for the expenses, made payable from the appropriation for Vaults Safes and Locks, Locks for Public Buildings, 1888.

Copy of the specification and proposed herewith enclosed.

Respectfully yours,
J.H. Maynard
Asst. Secretary
Freret F.